

our ethos

Barrydale Hand Weavers was born of a conscious desire to slow down, and it's this that's allowed us to take a uniquely considered approach to craftsmanship.

WE'RE ABOUT PRODUCT, PROCESS, AND PEOPLE.

As a business, we're concerned not only with the preservation of an ancient process that results in beautiful products, but also in the empowerment, employment and skills development of our team – because that's where our future lies.

our fabrics

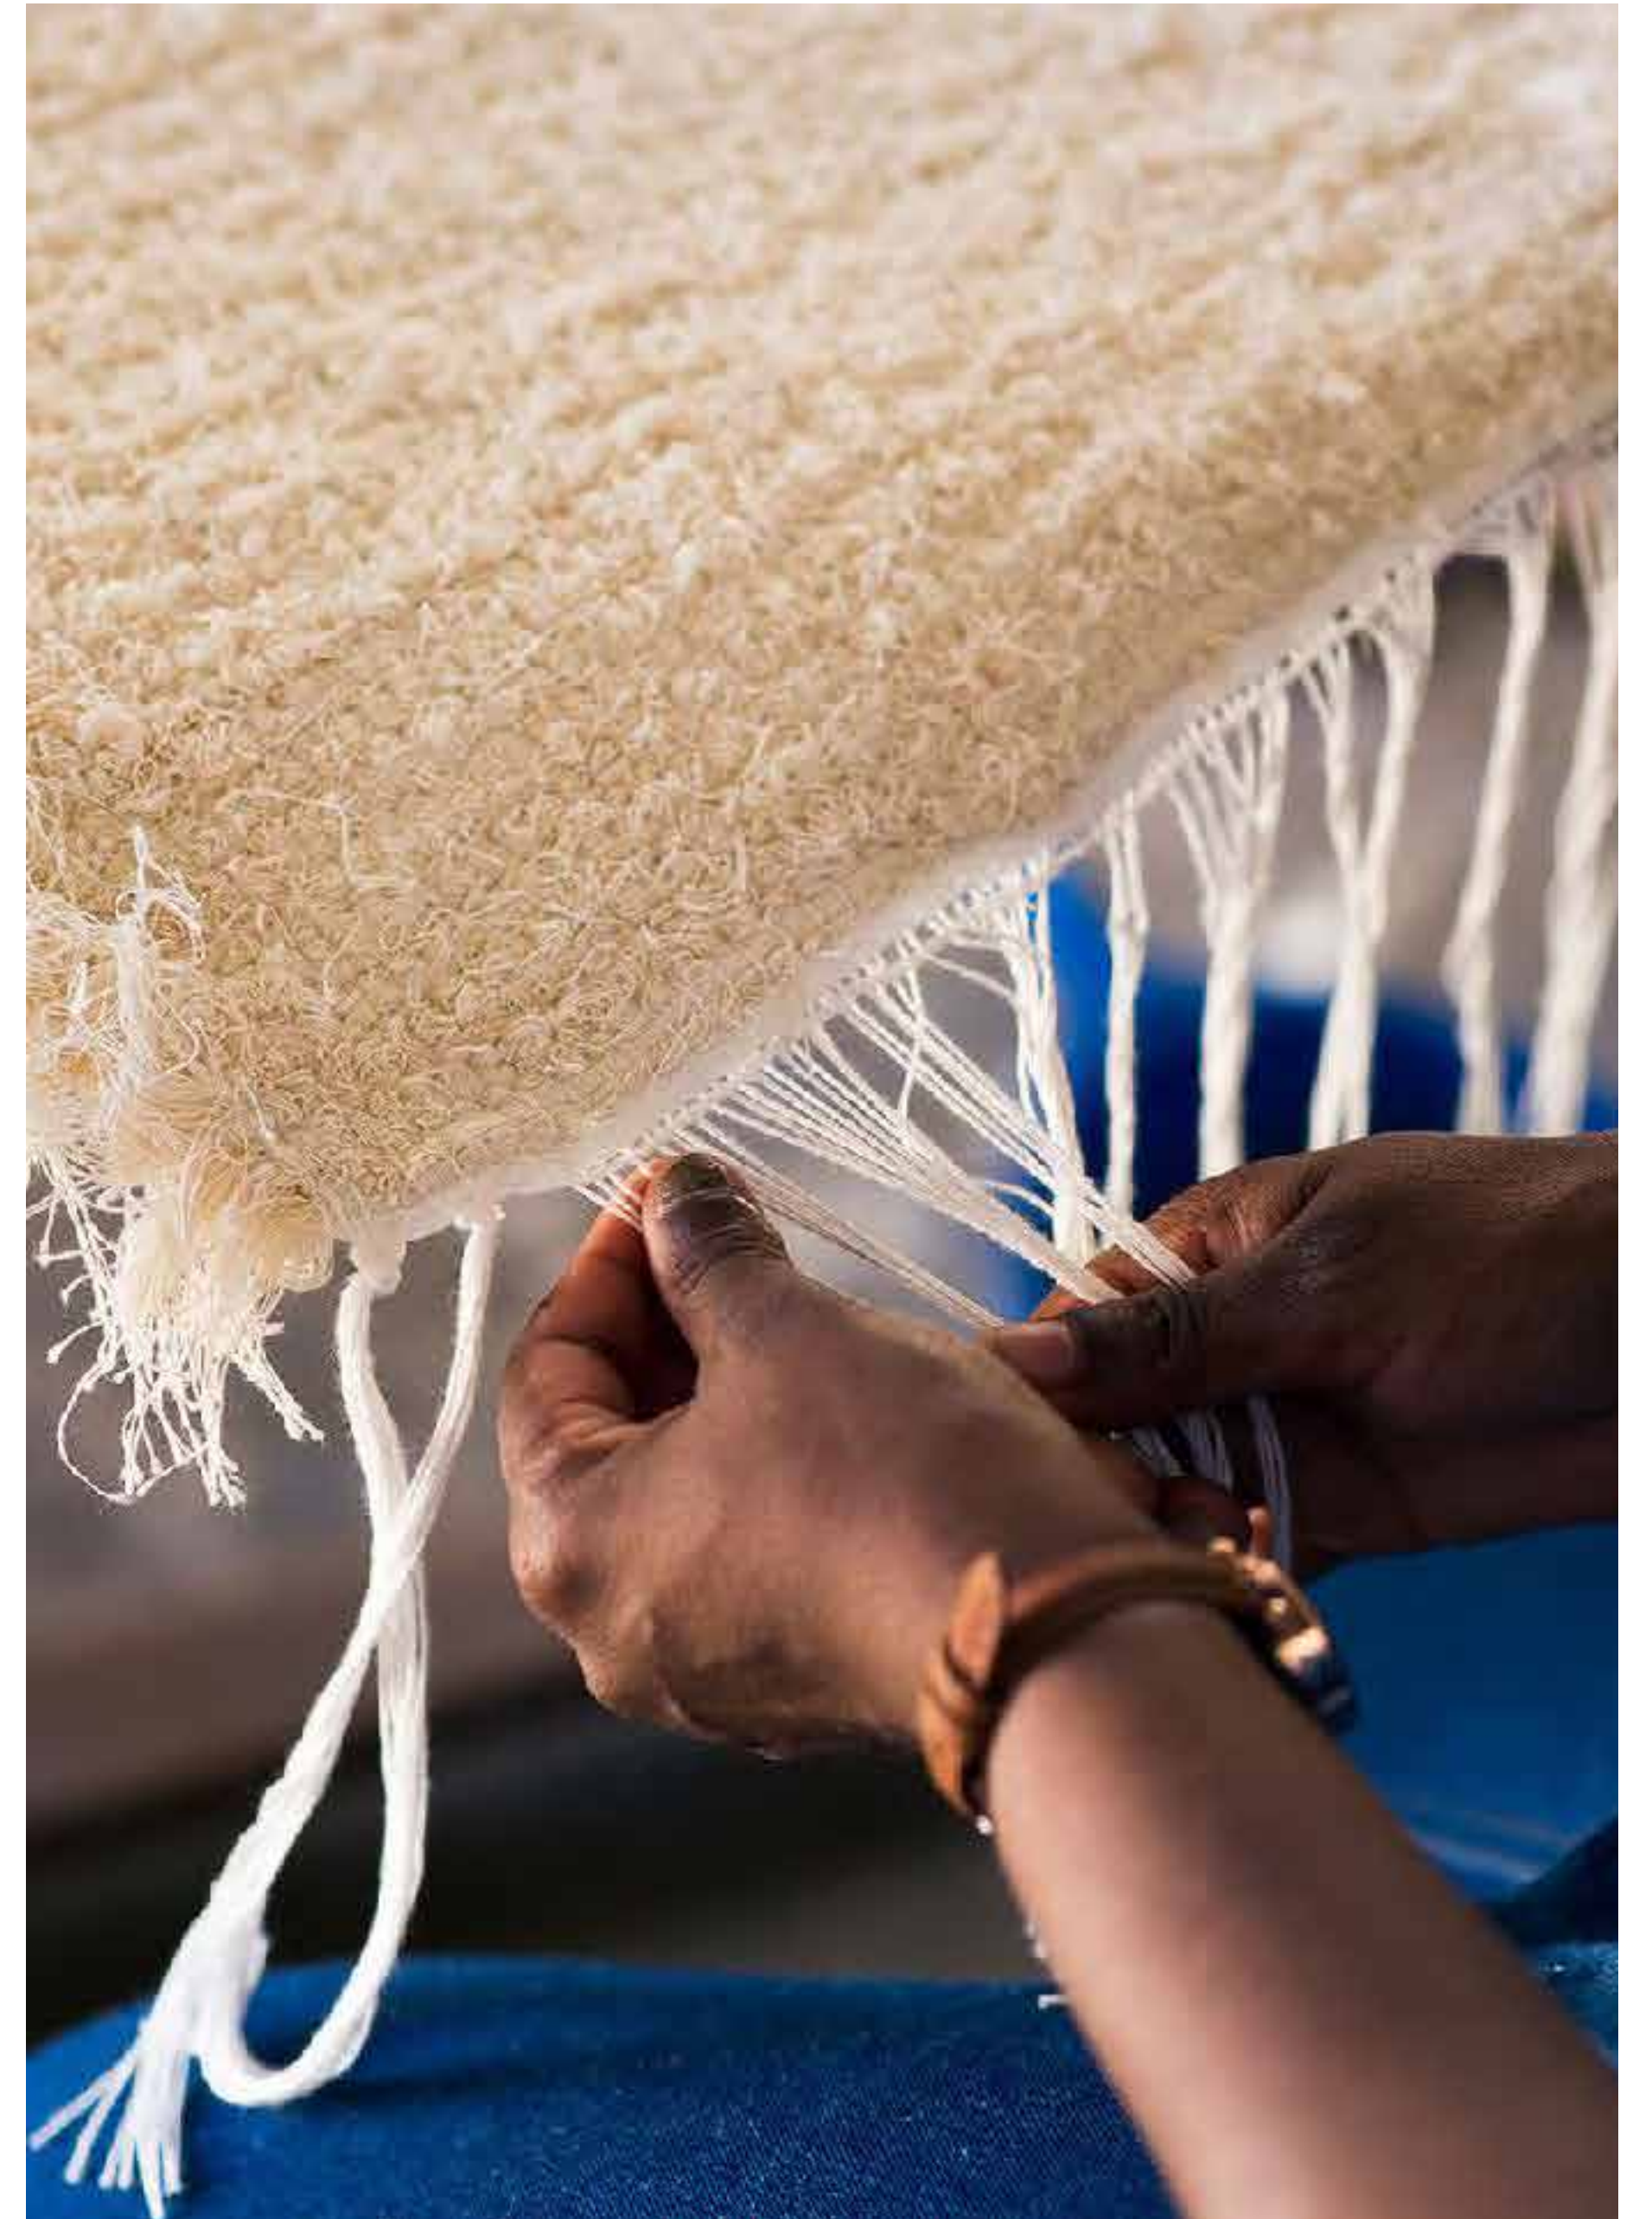

To craft our fabrics we use locally grown cotton, spun here in South Africa, in its natural state or dyed to our colour specifications.

our mats and rugs

For our mats and rugs we upcycle the by-product ('waste') from South African textile mills as we use the edges of cotton fabric, cut from their industrial looms.

A close-up photograph of a wooden surface, likely a table or desk, with a warm, natural wood grain. A woven throw blanket with a light beige and grey pattern is draped across the top right. Below it, a piece of light-colored, textured fabric is folded into a neat, rectangular shape. The text "throws and blankets" is overlaid in a white, serif font on the left side of the image.
